

Youtube channels for practicing French:

Channel name	Types of videos
Montreux Comedy	10 minutes videos from various comedians (mostly in French). If you understand all the videos, you may realize that some are inappropriate.
Cyprien	5 to 15-minute videos with sarcastic or satirical comments about various subjects. One of the most well-known francophone youtubers.
Le Monde	Channel of one of the major French newspapers. Short videos explaining political concepts, current events, climate change etc.
France 24	Channel of a French news program. Short videos with news footage and interviews.
1 jour, 1 question	1-minute animations that answer a variety of questions about politics, science, health...
Axolot	Documentary-ish videos usually with voiceover narration. The channel has different series (e.g. Etranges Escales has 20-minute videos about interesting places in various cities).
Français avec Pierre	5 to 10-minutes videos with two francophones explaining grammar, idiomatic expressions, slang, culture...
C'est pas sorcier	Mostly 25-minutes videos talking about different science concepts and doing experiments/demos.
ARTE	Lots of documentaries about politics, history, culture, science... There are related channels like ARTE Découverte
Doc Seven	Videos about weird places and other strange or extreme things. Mostly animations / photos with voiceover narration
Investigations et Enquêtes	Various documentaries. I cannot vouch for their quality or accuracy :)
TV5MONDE TV5MONDE Info	News reports and interviews
Max Bird	Has a series called 'Les Idées Reçues' that critiques assumptions and scientific myths.

Websites with video content:

<https://apprendre.tv5monde.com/fr>, <https://enseigner.tv5monde.com>

<https://ici.radio-canada.ca/info/videos>, <https://ici.radio-canada.ca/jeunesse/scolaire/videos>

<https://ici.tou.tv>

<https://www.arte.tv/fr/>